> Hello,
> I am wondering if you have any information on a Benjamin Ellston of Thornhill who married Alice Bosanko of Aurora on April 15, 1864. I understand that this was a second marriage for both as they were widow and widower. Benjamin was the proprietor of the Aurora Hotel until it burned down in 1877.
> He had a son, John, and a daughter Mary Ellston who married my ggggrandfather Robert Watt in 1865.
> I have a list of Benjamin's grandchildren in our family bible and would like any information on what happened to Alice and Benjamin. (where they are buried, death dates)
> Any information you have , even if just on Alice would be greatly appreciated.

Subject: Re:Ellston

Hello,

Thanks for your response re: Alice Berryman/Bosanko/Ellston. The following is my connection to Benjamin Ellston, as well as details that I have about his children and grandchildren.

Benjamin Ellston was the father of John and Mary Ellston. I don't know whether or not he had any more children. Mary Ellston was the second wife of my gggrandfather, Robert Watt. I have a family bible which was presented to Mary Ellston It is quite large and the frontpiece has been inscribed in beautiful lettering: Presented by Robert Watt to Mrs. Mary Watt, his wife, as a mark of affection - 1875. Robert died on November 22, 1875 . He'd been born in Udny, Aberdeenshire, Scotland on December10, 1831.

Some of the inscriptions have been professionally done, while others have been written in by hand indicating births, deaths and marriages. I'm sure that Mary Ellston wrote some of them herself. The following are some dates with respect to Mary Ellston.

Mary Ellston, his wife born in Wigan, Lancashire, England on the 24th of August 1842. (Robert had 3 sons from his previous marriage - one born in Scotland and twins born in 1860 in the Township of Vaughan, Ontario)

Robert Watt married to Mary Ellston at Thornhill Upper Canada on the 6th day of September 1865 by the Rector of Thornhill Rev. Robert Shanklin., by licence.

Robert and Mary had the following children:

. Margaret Jane Watt born Toronto Feb. 25 1867.. Benjamin Ellston Watt born Dec. 14, 1868 - the handwritten note in the bible records his death as January 13, 1884, but I have a copy of his death registration dated January 13, 1885 , sixteen years (Toronto) of Cerebro -Neurological Inflammation -24 hours. physician Dr. J. A. Carroll - religion Presbyterian. Death registered January 19, 1885. John George Watt born Feb. 16, 1871. Anne Watt born March 10, 1873. According to notes Anne died at Toronto July 21, 1873 (approx. 4 months old).

Mary Ellston Watt died at the Home for Incurables, Toronto, January 23, 1896 in her 52nd year of age.

If you go to the online Toronto Directories you can find Benjamin Ellston as proprietor of the Aurora Hotel in 1865. It burned in 1874. (correction as in my previous note I believe I told you 1877) It is now a vacant lot at the southeast corner of Yonge and Tyler st. in Aurora. I don't know when or where Benjamin died, so I was wondering where Alice, his second wife was buried, perhaps they are buried in the same place.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. T. H. Broad is visiting friends in Providence, R. I., this month.

Word was received here on Thursday afternoon that Thomas Hall, formerly a resident of this place, but who moved to Toronto this spring, had been struck by an auto and killed.

We are pleased to see that Dr. Ford Butler, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. F. Butler of this place has been successful in passing his final examinations at the Dental College, in Toronto.

A most enjoyable social with an excellent programme was given by the boys and girls Bible classes of Trinity Sunday School to their parents and friends in the Hall, last evening.

The funeral of the late John Bosanko took place on Thursday afternoon to the Aurora ctmetery Deceased was born here 81 years ago and had lived in this neighborhood all his life. The interment took place in the Aurora Cemetery.

The Aurora Farmers' Club will hold a meeting on Saturday, May 15th, at 8 o'clock (farmers' time) in the Oddfellows Hall. A Co-operative representative will be present to talk to the Aurora Club on selling of co-operative shares. This will be an important meeting. All members are urged to be present.

On Friday, James Brown, the 10 year old son of James Brown, Sr., of Centre Street had his toes badly crushed by the steam roller working on the Good roads in town. The boy was playing around the roller and had climbed on to one of the wheels of the roller and was not noticed by the engineer when he started the roller. It is a wonder the boy was not crushed to death.

Beaches Chapter of R. A. M., Toronto, visited Doric Chapter, last Wednesday evening and initiated seven candidates into the mysteries of Capitular Masonry.

Ex-Comp. W. H. Cunningham 1st Principal of the Beaches Chapter was accompanied by a number of Grand Chapter officers and twenty-five other companions. They were heartily welcomed by Ex-Comp., McQuade and his officers, and at the close of the Chapter they spent a very enjoyable time in their banquet hall, during which a number of excellent speeches were given.

Proctor are in charge of raising the objective of $750. set for this town in this very worthy undertaking. The captains who will make the canvass are Mrs Conn, Mrs. Wellwood, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. J. B. Spurr and Mrs. W. L. Banbury. Subscriptions will be canvassed between May 15th and May 22nd

The Salvation Army has the greatest organization in the world for rescue and social work and evangelization. The self-denial of their officers and soldiers commands the respect and admiration of the world. We hope the public will be generous in their contributions to the Army's Jubilee Self-Denial Fund.

On Tuesday, May 4th, the Cadet Corps of Aurora High School had their annual inspection by Col. Huggins, and stood the test very well indeed. The lads in khaki uniform made quite a gallant show in the park, and was viewed by a few interested townsfolk.

After the inspection the second annual banquet was held—a very much enjoyed occasion. The Club, kindly loaned to the High School by Mr. Baldwin, looked very pretty in its decorations of blue and gold, the high school colors, and the long tables carried out the same charming color scheme, with large vases of yellow snapdragons and blue place cards.

The High School owe their thanks to the ladies of the Women's Institute, who so kindly undertook to manage the refreshments, which needless to say were fully appreciated.

After the banquet came the toasts, as follows:—

Tuesday evening the members of the Horticultural Society had the pleasure of hearing Mr. J. H. Bennett of Barrie give a talk on Peony growing and general culture of flowers. Mr. Bennett is one of the largest growers of peonies in Ontario and gave many valuable pointers on growing them. He extended an invitation to the society to visit his garden the latter part of June, which was accepted by the society. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The Aurora Lecture and Entertainment Association announce the closing event of a successful series. On Monday evening, May 17th, Rev. W. J. Spence of Chatham will deliver an address that evtryone should hear. The subject will be "Our Empire and How we got it." It is an enthralling and instructive story; and Mr. Spence tells the story in a delightfully entertaining manner. We are taken on a trip through England, Ireland and India,—to the Australian Gold Fields, Africa, China and Bonnie Scotland. As we proceed, we are shown by means of about two hundred hand painted pictures thrown on the screen by a powerful lantern, places of interest, and scenes of many historical incidents you have often wished to see.

Those who hold Season Tickets will be sure to come. Others may buy single tickets for only twenty-five cents and should not fail to take advantage of this splendid evening's entertainment.

A grand opportunity for High School Students and the older pupils of Public School. Don't miss it! Extra seating accommodation will be provided by the Committee but you will do well to COME EARLY to GET a GOOD SEAT.

12. 142 Collingwood Street

At the top of the hill, at 142 Collingwood Street, is the Second Empire style mansion built by dentist Charles Bosanko. Many of the finest homes in Barrie were built on natural ridges of land and faced south to command a sweeping view of Kempenfelt Bay. Dr. Bosanko built his residence, which once featured a centre tower with a mansard roof and iron cresting, in 1879. Unfortunately, he soon found commuting to his dental practice on Collier Street too difficult and sold the house. The carriage stone on the lawn bears the name Beverly Hall, which is believed to be an early name for the Bosanko residence.

son, their religions interests in this vicinity, to sell their house of worship in Mantorville to the Congregational Church. The proposition was accepted and the church edifice purchased on terms proposed.

Under the talented ministry of Rev. Wm. Gill the church received accessions from time to time more than equaling in number the losses by removal of many members to other places. Mr. Gill, closing his labors December, 1881, was succeeded the same month by Rev. Henry Willard who continues as acting pastor at this date August, 1884.

The most happy incident in connection with his ministry here was the reception to the church at one time April 6th, 1884 of seventeen members, sixteen of whom united on profession of faith. A revival with preaching by Rev. E. E. Rogers, evangelist, had paved the way for this occasion.

At present congregations are good at both services of the Sabbath. The prayer meetings and Sabbath School are well sustained, and interest is shown in ladies' temperance and missionary organizations for the good of the community and the world.

Several unsuccessful attempts have been made to organize and maintain a ladies' missionary society. In 1882 a society was established under the auspices of the Congregational Church, known as the "Willing Workers," and it is now in a flourishing condition. It is chiefly composed of young ladies, who seem zealous in the interest of both home and foreign missions.

St. John's Church.—Among the early settlers of Mantorville were a few Episcopal families. In the fall of 1865, Rev. Peter S.

Ruth emigrated from Ohio and settled in Mantorville. He at once began to hold services according to the rites of the Episcopal Church. Meetings were held in a vacant store on the corner of Sixth and Clay streets, since moved away and torn down. At a meeting held in this building pursuant to notice on the 18th of March, 1868, it was resolved by the persons there present to incorporate themselves into a religious society under the laws of the state. Israel Olive and George Zeller were duly chosen as wardens, and A. J. Edgerton, Charles Gleason, A. La Due, J. H. Verkins and Charles Klobe were elected vestrymen. Monday in easter week was fixed as the time of annual election, and St. John's Church of the town of Mantorville was fixed upon as the name of the organization. L. B. Purmort and Dr. C. H. Bosanko were also members at this time. Ambrose La Due was appointed secretary and A. J. Edgerton, treasurer, at the first meeting, on the 13th of April following. At a subsequent meeting, the sum of $300 was pledged for the the support of the rector.

During the year 1869, the construction of a stone church was begun, on lots 6, 7, 8 and 9, block 12, opposite the court house on Main street, purchased of Charles McIlrath and G. P. Bancroft for $400 The walls were erected, and the building was carried to its present states of completion in 1870. On the 22d of September, that year, the church was consecrated by Rt. Rev. Bishop H. B. Whipple. This building was erected in accordance with the provisions of a will left by Mrs. Sarah A. Ruth, wife of the rector. It was intended to be a memorial church, but the funds giving out before it was ready for occupancy, the citizens of the village were called upon to contribute to the building fund and did so. The total cost of the building is unknown. It occupies a handsome site, but has not been occupied for several years. Mr. Ruth went away in 1870, and in 1873 Rev. Charles Grosser took charge of the parish for a year. He was succeeded by Rev. James Cornell, who remained until 1877.

Since the organization of the society there have been thirty-five baptisms and twenty-seven confirmations. Most of the communicants have died or moved away, and the parish is not strong enough to maintain a rector. The neighboring village of Kasson has an Episcopal church, where services are occasionally held.

Disciple Church of Mantorville.—In June, 1875, a conference meeting of the southeastern district of Minnesota was held by the coming in some cases hundreds of miles. One afternoon there were from 150 to 200 persons in the lobby of the King Edward Hotel, waiting their turn to be examined by one of the four osteopathic eye, ear, nose and throat specialists who were working as fast as accuracy would allow.

Dr. Asa Willard of Missoula, Mont., was elected president; Dr. Ray B. Gilmour, Sioux City, Iowa, first vice president; Dr. Wm. O. Nicholl, Philadelphia, second vice president; Dr. Evelyn R. Bush, Louisville, Ky., third vice president; the term of Dr. F. P. Millard of Toronto as trustee had expired and Dr. W. Othur Hillery also of Toronto was elected to take his place. Other trustees elected were: Drs Carl P. McConnell, Chicago, H. F. Goetz, St. Louis; Geo. V. Webster, Carthage, N.Y.; Josephine L. Pierce, Lima, Ohio and James M. Fraser, Evanston, Ill.

Louisville, Kentucky, was selected as the next meeting place.

Dr. Bosanko did well for himself in Barrie. In 1879, he had a most beautiful house built for himself in the east end of town. Still standing today is a Second Empire style mansion perched on a hill at 142 Collingwood St. He called it Beverly Hall. Huge and roomy, with a fantastic view of Kempenfelt Bay, it was too big for the family and too far from the dentist's downtown practice.

The Bosanko family moved to a far more modest home at the corner of Worsley and Mulcaster Sts. and Dr. Bosanko operated his dentistry out of his home after that – no more commuting.

Both born in 1842, within three months of each other, Dr. and Mrs. Bosanko both died in 1925, again within three months of each other. They are buried in the Laird plot in Barrie Union Cemetery.

Charles returned to school in 1873 and earned a post graduate degree at the Philadelphia Royal Dental College. By 1874, he had earned his D.D.S., and taken over Dr. McCausland's practice. Now the sign in the upper window overlooking the Post Office Square said 'Dr. Bosanko'.

Although educated in the most modern methods of the time, I would not like to spend any time in a Dr. Bosanko's nineteenth century dental chair.

Likely, his chair would be made of ornate cast iron, upholstered in red velvet or black leather, and raised or lowered by a ratchet system. Dr. Bosanko, like most dentists, would have worked on his patients while standing. Lucky for him, foot pedal operated drills, much like sewing machines, had just been invented as he started out in his practice. Hand drilling could not have been fun for him or his customers.

Dr. Bosanko would have filled dental cavities with gold, silver, mixed metals or vulcanized rubber. He could create a set of porcelain teeth for you too, if you wanted, which was much preferable to what were known as Waterloo teeth.

Before more durable dental porcelain was perfected, the best and strongest dentures were made from dead men's teeth. On battlegrounds, like where the Battle of Waterloo was fought, the teeth of young, strong but dead soldiers were extracted and collected in the thousands to make false teeth. The practice of using the teeth of the deceased only faded away completely with the turn of the 20th century.

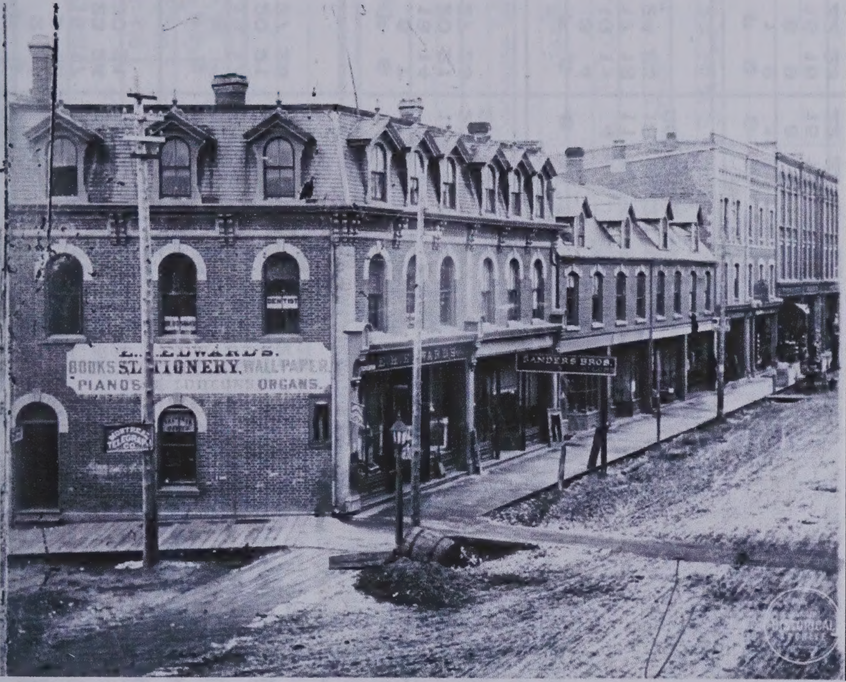
Remember This? Hand drills, porcelain teeth and dentistry in Barrie in the early 1900s

Apr 26, 2017 12:00 PM by: Mary Harris



1 / 5 Dr. Bosanko's sign is visible in the upper window of the east end of the Glebe Block, circa 1888. Photo courtesy of the Barrie Historical Archive.

"Office and residence No. 68 Mulcaster St. Pay no attention to rumors that he has retired. You will find him very much alive to the public requirements. Call or phone No. 263 when you need prompt and efficient service."

This ad ran often in the 'Barrie Examiner' in the early 1920s, even up until 1924, one year before Dr. Charles Henry Bosanko passed away at the age of 82 years old. It may be true that local folks had assumed that the dentist had given up his practice, or rather they were no longer very inclined to open their mouths for a practitioner who had learned his trade back in the 1870s.

The somewhat Eastern European sounding name, Bosanko, is actually English and unique to the Cornwall region, where Charles' parents came from. The family settled in York Region and Charles was born there in 1842.

The first school of its kind, The Royal Dental College opened in Toronto in 1869 and Charles Bosanko was among the first students to attend and graduate. The next order of business was to find an internship and his quest led him to the practice of Dr. J. McCausland who operated out of an office on Dunlop St. in Barrie.

It was here that he met his bride, Elizabeth Isabella Laird, an Irish girl and local school teacher. They married in late 1871, and according to her 1925 obituary in the 'Barrie Examiner', "Her wedding to Dr. Bosanko was the first solemnized in the present Collier St. Methodist Church."

MRS. JAMES BOSANKO DEAD

Mrs. James Bosanko, 1113 Santa Fe street, died last evening at 8:25, at her home, following an illness lasting over the past year, caused by cancer.

Mrs. Bosanko, who before her marriage was Miss Mary Livilla Laipple, was born in Youngstown, Pennsylvania, September 19, 1853. Her mother died shortly after she was born, and in 1867 her father came to Atchison to live. In 1868 the then Miss Laipple came to Kansas, going to Ottawa for several months to visit relatives before coming to Atchison in 1869 to make her home with her father.

On April 28, 1872, Miss Laipple was married to James Bosanko, who was then operating a meat market on upper Commercial street. Mr. Bosanko continued in the butcher business for forty five years, retiring several years ago when his health failed him. He died May 30, 1918.

Mrs. Bosanko has been in failing health for more than a year. Last spring she went to Denver, hoping that the higher altitude would benefit her, and remained there until early in October, when she returned to Atchison, at the home of her son, Richard Bosanko. Since returning to Atchison she had been bedfast a greater part of the time until her death.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Bosanko. One son, Frank Bosanko, died about six months ago at his home in Billings, Montana. Two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Woodford, of Newell, South Dakota, who has been taking care of her mother for the past week; Mrs. J. R. Comer, of Carthage, Texas; and two sons, Richard Bosanko, of Denver, and Walter Bosanko, of St. Joseph, survive her. Charles Laipple of Wathena, John Laipple, of San Diego, Cal., and Mrs. S. E. Purky, of Bloomdale, Ohio. Mrs. Woodford, Walter Bosanko and Charles Laipple were at the bedside when Mrs. Bosanko passed away last evening. Mrs. Comer will arrive tomorrow, as will Richard Bosanko.

Mrs. Bosanko has been one of the most highly respected women of the city during her whole life here, and a host of friends mourn her death.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the arrival of relatives tomorrow and Saturday.

JAMES BOSANKO DEAD.

From Thursday's Daily.

James Bosanko, pioneer Atchison meat dealer, died at 12:05 o'clock this morning from general breakdown due to old age, at the family home, 1113 Santa Fe street. He was in the meat business here forty years coming to Atchison from his birthplace in Aurora, Canada, when he was 27 years old. He was born June 24, 1845. Mr. Bosanko had been in ill health two years, and retired when his health began to fail. He had been bedfast ten weeks.

He had been for many years a member of the First Baptist church. Probably no man ever was more devoted to his family than was James Bosanko. He rarely spent an evening away from home, although he was a member of three lodges, the Fraternal Aid Union, the Ancient Order United Workmen and the Modern Woodmen of America.

For the first three years after he came to Atchison, Mr. Bosanko was in the meat business with George Schmitt, 923½ North Eleventh street, and when the partnership was dissolved he went into business for himself.

April 28, 1872, Mr. Bosanko married Miss Mary Cevilla Laipple in Atchison, and they lived their entire married life in Atchison, with the exception of the year 1877, when they lived in Aurora, Canada. Neither was satisfied there, however, and they returned to Atchison in 1878.

Burglars put in their appearance last night on West Santa Fe street. They got through the window into the kitchen of James Benanko. His wife called him but he, thinking it was a noise from the stable, did not get up. but Mrs. Benanko was not so easily satisfied. She got up and went into the dining room, but hearing nothing went to bed again. This morning they found the kitchen door open and the window propped up with the coal bucket. It is supposed that the thieves heard Mrs. Benanko and made good their escape, as nothing was taken out of the house when Mr. Benanko came down to work this morning. It is supposed to be the same gang that entered the kitchen of Mr. Sheridon of the Olathe cash lumber yard and took a box of cigars. Nothing further was missed up to present writing.

He is survived by his widow and five children: R. J. Bosanko, Denver, Colo.; F. A. Bosanko, Sheridan, Wyo.; W. W. Bosanko, St. Joseph, Mo.; Mrs. J. R. Comer, Carthage, Texas, and Mrs. C. W. Woodford, Newell, S. D. He also is survived by John Bosanko, Aurora, Canada, who lived in Atchison 40 years ago; Dr. C. H. Bosanko, Barrie, Canada, who taught school at Shannon before he became a physician, and R. G. Bosanko, of Bosanko & Poehler, brothers.

Funeral services probably will be held Sunday afternoon, but arrangements have not yet been made. Word has been received from all the children except R. J. Bosanko, of Denver, that they will be here tomorrow or Saturday. An effort will be made to secure the Rev. A. J. Haggett, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here and now of Kansas City, to conduct the services, which will be held from the Bosanko home.

acterized by the utmost simplicity, as there were no attendants and no wedding march. At 7:30 o'clock the bride and groom came downstairs and took their places before Rev. A. J. Haggett, pastor of the First Baptist church, who stood before a bank of palms in the living room. The impressive ring ceremony was used in reading the marriage service. The bride looked attractive in a handsome gown of Belgian blue, crepe meteor, trimmed in heavy silver lace. The gown was round necked and long sleeved. The bride carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. Then following congratulations, the wedding guests who were relatives and very close friends, were served with light refreshments. The bridal couple left last night for Kansas City, and from there will go to Liberty and Independence, Mo. After visiting a week, they will return to Atchison and will go to Newell, S. D., February 14, where the groom owns a prosperous drygoods store. They will have apartments and board for awhile, going to housekeeping in the spring. The bride's going-away gown was a very elegant tailored, green cloth, worn with hat to match. The bride of last night was born in Atchison, and is one of the girls who could not begin to count her friends. She has assisted her father in his business, has been a worker in the Baptist church, was an ideal daughter at home, and was much admired by a circle of girl friends by whom she will be greatly missed. The groom is a young man of sterling worth. He came here with his father and brother, and established the Atchison Cash Store a few years ago. He has made many friend, and it is to be regretted that he and his bride will not live in Atchison. The out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bosanko of Denver, and the grandfather and aunt of the groom, Mr. A. Landers and Miss Harriett Landers of Blue Rapids.

#008957-79 (Peterborough Co.) Alfred BOSANKO, 25, b. Canada, of Norwood, Dental Surgeon, s/o Jas. & Alice BOSANKO, married Caroline Rebecca PATTERSON, witnesses: Jas. PATTERSON & Libby JOHNSTON, both of Peterborough, on 4 December 1879 at Peterborough

parage the concern of which you are a part, you disparage yourself. More than that, you are loosening the tendrils that hold you to the institution, and the first high wind that comes along you will be uprooted and blown away in the blizzard's track—and probably you will never know why. The letter only says:—"Times are dull and we regret there is not enough work, etc."

The following obituary notice is taken from a newspaper published in Grant, Michigan:—Dr. Alfred Bosnako was born in Aurora, Ontario, May 5th, 1853 and died at his home in Grant, Wednesday Jan. 11th 1911, aged 58 years. During his younger life he was prominent in the newspaper field, being war correspondent for a leading Toronto paper. During an Indian uprising his work took him into the midst of the Indian county, where he remained for three years among the red men. Later he entered the Toronto University from which he graduated with honor in 1877. He came to Michigan 1887, locating in Grand Rapids. Later he located his dental parlors in Sparta and Casnovia. About five years ago he came to Grant, where he has since resided, having during the time, branch offices in Kent City, Casnovia and Bailey. He was recognized as one of the best read men on ancient history in this section. He leaves, besides a host of friends, a wife, two children, Mae and Arthur four brothers, John of Aurora, Ont., Charles of Barrie, Ont., James and Richard of Atchison, Kas. Arthur died 14 years ago. The funeral was held Friday from the Baptist church, Rev. Briedenstien officiating and the remains were laid at rest in Ashland cemetery.

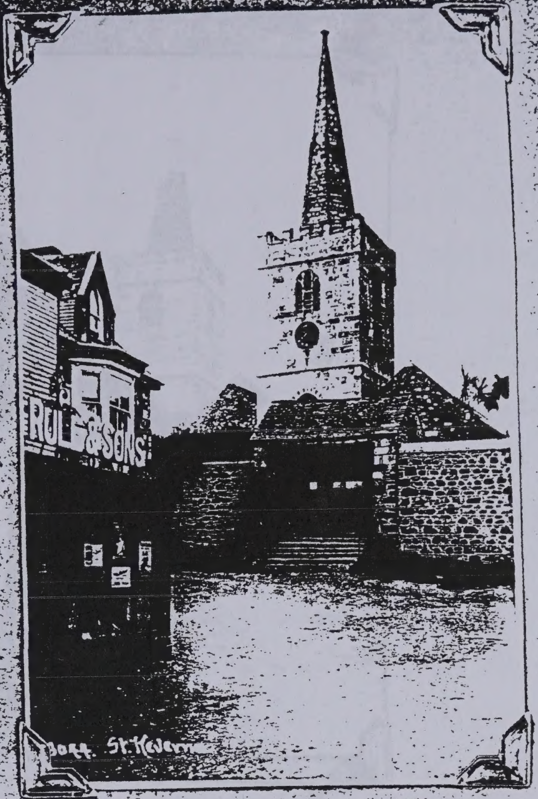
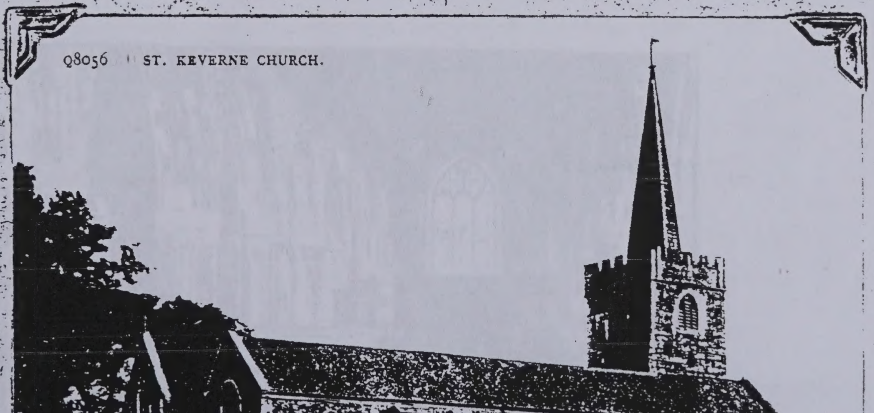
Let us now praise famous men and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding: Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent in their instructions: Rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been, and are become as though they had never been born, and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance. Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes. Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liveth for evermore.

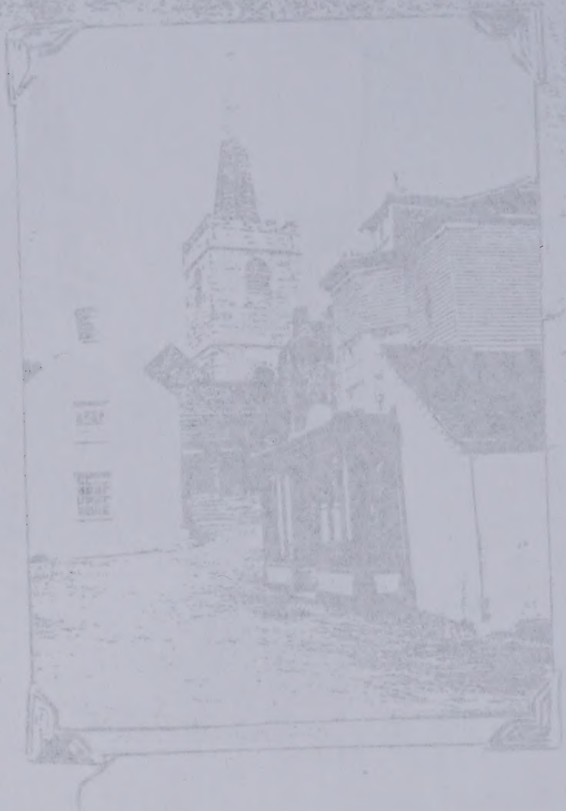
Ecclesiasticus.

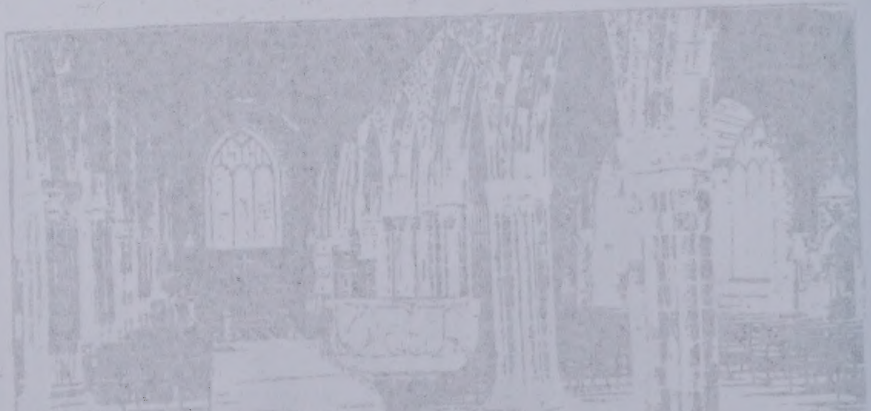


8044. St Kevern



Q8056 ST. KEVERNE CHURCH.





The records of the Bosanko family are relatively few. On my mother's side of the house, the Newtons, Parsons, Smiths etc., being New Englanders of wealth and prominence, have family records in a good state of preservation, whereas the Bosankos would seem to have been plain people who made no great noise in their small world. In the Cornwall of a hundred years and more ago, few records were kept outside of the parish church entries of marriages, baptisms and deaths and even these were not in the best of condition. I have not had the opportunity of making a personal search in the records of St. Keverne's Church nor have I cared to pay the high fees charged by professional genealogists.

The family is of native Cornish stock. The name, spelt in a number of ways, such as Besanquo, Bosancow, Bosanketh, means, in the Cornish tongue, "The House of Death or Sorrow." (Bos - a house or family; ancow - death.) Of the origin of this very gloomy appelation, I am in complete ignorance. For the etymology of the name, see "A Glossary of Cornish Names" by the Rev. John Bannister, Vicar of St. Day. Williams and Morgate, Edinburgh, 1871. This volume is in the library of Yale University.

The traditional arms of the family are,"On a field or, a tree proper on a mound purpure: on a chief gules a mullet between two crescents of the field. Crest; a demi-lion rampant. Motto; Per damna per caedes." There is no record of these arms in any of the Heraldic Visitations of the Duchy. I have a very old ivory seal marked "J.B." under the family crest, once the property of my grand-father James Bosanko, though it may well antidate him. The fact that a simple family should have coat-armour would seem strange in Saxon England, but Cornwall is a Celtic land and shares this oddity with her sister Brittany where fishermen, descendants of old families, not infrequently have a right to elaborate armorial bearings. The old Cornish language flourished till the end of the Eighteenth Century and I am of the opinion that my ancestors of ten generations ago considered the English as pushing foreigners with an unknown speech in their mouths.

The first Bosankos of whom I have definite record are three children, JOHN, THOMAS and ELEANOR. They lived in the church-town of St. Keverne on the south coast of Cornwall. I do not know in what social class to place them, but I judge that they would have been put with the yeoman-farmers of the district and most decidedly not among the gentry. While most of the Cornish are Wesleyan Methodists, I believe that the family has always been "Church" and has considered itself a little above the common run. St. Keverne itself I have never visited, but, to show something of the town and of the state of the records there, I quote a portion of a letter written to my Mother by a friend who visited the town a few years before the war.

> "Here I am among the ancestral graves, and a quaint, old-world spot it is. It is eleven miles from the nearest railway and my friend and I drove twenty miles to get here....It is a cruel shore here, full of stories of shipwrecks and drownings, as indeed the church-yard is of graves of the drowned. I am lodging with a lady whose great-uncle was a Bosanko, Richard, apparently a brother of James, both being sons of John. I found John's gravestone yesterday, also an old man who knew him more than fifty years ago. Here is the inscription;
> 'Sacred to the Memory of Mary, wife of John Bosanko of this parish, who died at Trevethian Sept. 6, 1845, aged 76 years. Also of John Bosanko, died August 22, 1856, aged 90 years.
> And am I born to die
> To lay this body down?'
> The name is now entirely extinct here and in Crowan and Breage. To visit these last named places would necessitate a drive of more than forty miles. This morning I spent an hour with the Vicar of St. Keverne's examining the records which go back to 1580 and decided that the only feasible way to get accurate knowledge was to hire an expert to decipher the dates and statements. They are many of them very dim and written in a crabbed hand which would severely tax the eyesight of any amateur."

The town of Crowan here mentioned is a minute dependency of St. Keverne. Its parish records have been published and are available in the library of Yale University. To show the entries there, I append a list of Bosanko names from the register of marriages, going back as far as the entries were kept.

*This was probably the Sarah who was married in 1761.
This is the entry of the marriage of my great-grand parents.

What some of the abbreviations in this record mean I do not know, particularly the frequently repeated "t."

THOMAS BOSANKO (1) was married in 1818 to Mary Percy. Beyond this fact I know nothing of them nor of their probable children.

THE BERRYMAN FAMILY

ELEANOR BOSANKO (1) married Charles Berryman, farmer, in 1793. These are my great-grandparents. I have a lock of her hair kept by her daughter Alice. The writing on the outer envelope is that of my cousin, the second Alice Berryman Bosanko.

Eleanor is said to have been a very beautiful woman with a very fine voice. From old letters, I gather the fact that the children of this marriage were numerous. There is mention of a daughter SARAH (2) who was married and living in Australia with a child Nancy (3). There is also mention of another daughter ELEANOR (2) married to a man named Bennet and having a son Joseph (3). There was also a JANE (2) living in Cornwall and a CHARLES (2) and a BETSY (2). Three other children stand out of the mist; HENRY BERRYMAN (2) a successful rancher living in South Australia, from one of whose letters I quote:

My dear Sister,

Yours of the 24th March last, came to hand in due time. I now sit down to answer it by the first opportunity. I was very surprised to find by it that Samuel my brother was dead. I never heard a sound of it before, neither do I know where to write to any of them. I don't know where sister Jane is, or I would write to her and send her some money if she stood in need of it, of which I have no doubt she do.* They have all kept themselves aloof from writing me ever since I sent home some Australian specimens of copper by a partner of mine (who went to England about four years since) to Samuel. I have been in the habit of sending our colonial papers to him ever since. I have left home so long that I don't know who is left thereabout that I could enquire of. (The 13th next month will be 34 years since I left for Brazil and I have only been in Cornwall 9 or 10 months since.) So, if they don't think me worthy of writing to, they can keep their paper and ink and I will keep mine. I was much annoyed when I had your letter and found that Samuel had been dead so long and no one sent me word of it.

You say you had a letter from Joseph Bennet. You say he is in a place called Iowa (where is that?) and that Sister Eleanor his mother is with him. What is he doing? Where is brother Henry? I had a letter from him from the Melbourne Diggings some five or six years since, but where he is now I don't know. I should like to hear from Sister Eleanor. Is Sister Betsy alive or dead? Sally has never wrote me like a sister should have done. I took her daughter Nanny and brought her up as well as my own children, but Sally has never, I beleive, been satisfied with the treatment she recieved from us, but many is the time since she has been married that she wished she was back with Uncle and Aunt again. I have lent the Husband assistance on several occasions, but without any thanks. My wife do at the present time keep the children in clothes. About six or seven years since, the Husband came to me and said that he wanted to go to Melbourne or Sidney; he thought he could get more wages there. I persuaded him not to do so, but all to no purpose. I asked him if he had money enough to take him there, he said no, I gave him five pounds, he have never sent me a letter even saying where he is from that time to this, nor do I know.

My dear Sister, enough of that sort. I must now tell you of some of my own ailments. I was taken Ill in last November, seized in the first place with a violent cold, which turned to bronchitis, and a touch of asthma accompanied with consumption. I have nearly lost my voice. I think some times that I may live out the winter, but at other times I very much doubt it. So you must not be surprised if by any mail you hear that you have a brother less. All my family are in good health and all except John, who is away, joins me in kindest love to you and hope that you are enjoying one of the greatest blessings on this side of the grave, viz good health which we only know how to appreciate when ill. I herewith send you one of our daily papers which I hope may reach you. You say you sent me two papers but neither one have come to hand. If you go into the Tavern, I hope you will do well. Have you ever kept a Tavern before?

I am
My dear Sister
your truly affct Brother
Hy Berryman.

(The last reference in this letter to my grandmother concerns an unrealized business venture.)

Captain SAMUEL BERRYMAN (2) lived his life in his native Cornwall. From his title, I judge that he followed the sea. I have an old photograph of him and two letters to his sister, my grandmother. One is little more than a note, but the other is of sufficient interest to warrant quoting.

Killivose, Camborne,
January 22, 1862.

My dear Sister,

......With regards to myself and your invitation to visit America. I am very much obliged to you for the invitation, circumstances alter cases. I am afraid that it's too late. I am very weak scarcely able to sit up and write this letter, gradually wasting away from the effects of a severe cold caught some 2 1/2 years agone which I cannot shake off. Settled on the windpipes, producing inflamation in the same. It's commonly called bronchitis. This Disease carries off 75 per cent of the population of England (or three fourths). I have been away from home 5 times for a change of air have derived no benefit therefrom......As to Brother Henry he is living in Adelaide. He has been gold digging some years agone but lately he has been contracting for the making of Railways they say he is Rich worth several thousand pounds I have got no letter from him these two years last past...... I think Brother Jonathan has acted wisely in keeping the safe side of England. We do not want to fall out with our American cousins but they must Behave or the lion will Roar and Shake his mane at them.

We Remain Dear Sister
Your affectionate Brother and sister
S & Jane Berryman.

One can but wonder what bit of international tension produced the delightful closing threat. It is evident that great-uncle Samuel was a stout Briton who would brook no foolishness from overseas.

ALICE BERRYMAN (2) my grandmother. Of her, Cousin Alice has kept a very clear picture. She seems to have been a woman of exceptionally strong character, combined with a steadiness and sweetness of disposition which made her greatly loved. As a girl, she had been trained as a dressmaker. She told the story that, while working on the trousseau of one of the daughters of the local gentry, she had had a whirlwind courtship by her first cousin, James Bosanko, a young carpenter and builder, married him October 10, 1839 and a few months later sent him out to America to seek his fortune. In 1840 he had settled in the city of New York and his wife, with a nine months old baby, joined him after a voyage on a sailing ship which lasted eight weeks. Finding life in New York unsatisfactory, the young couple moved to Toronto and then to the nearby town of Aurora in what was then the Province of Upper Canada. Here grandmother lived the rest of her life and brought up her numerous family. When my grandfather was killed, she realized what she could on his property and opened a small dressmaking shop which she operated successfully for some years. Her husband's death took place six month before the birth of my father and was, obviously, a tremendous shock. Grandmother always explained the poor eyesight of her youngest child on the ground of her constant weeping during the last months of her pregnancy. Grandmother had very beautiful, wavy hair. Cousin Alice says that, following grandfather's death, grandmother felt that curls were not in accord with a widow's grief amd that she did all she could to make her hair lie flat, with the result that it curled more than ever. In the end, she was forced to resign herself to the inevitable. Another story that Cousin Alice tells of her is that one day my father came home weeping with the complaint that another boy had beaten him in a fight. On discovering that the enemy was no larger than my father, grandmother sent him out again with orders to hunt up the young man and thrash him or take a good spanking at home. She died in Aurora, Canada, about 1879 and is buried there.

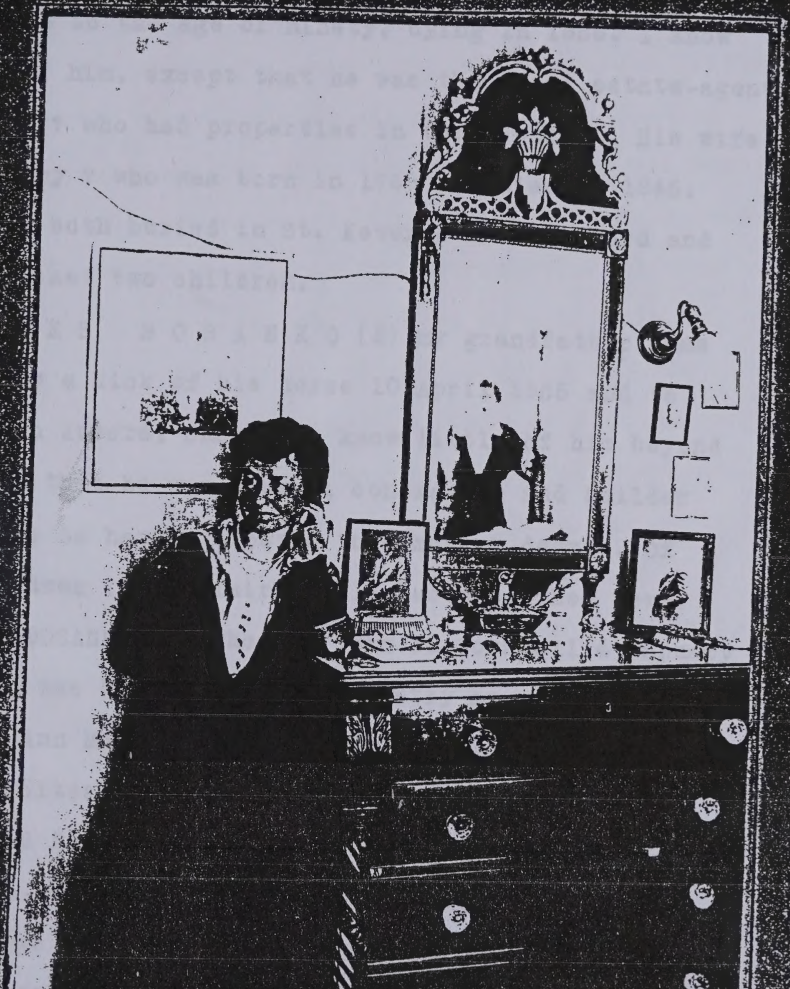
(Cousin Alice added the following note, written in June 1934.)"In reading your notes of Grandmother's work taken up following Grandfather's death (he was kicked in the abdomen by his own spirited horse, which he was leading, and died in thirty-six hours): Grandmother employed a friend whom she took into business with her, a Miss Ruth Stevenson, whom we all called "Aunt Ruth." So successful were they that Grandmother not only took care of and educated her six sons, but also paid off a debt of $20,000 on the property left her by her husband. The buildings on the property (built by Grandfather) consisted of a small hotel and stables facing Young Street and a cottage facing the side street,in which all the family grew up. Later this hotel and stables were burned with only $1,200 insurance on them, which greatly decreased Grandmother's income during the last years of her life. I lived with Grandmother from the time I was four or five years old, when my mother died, until Grandmother's death ten years later when I went to live with Uncle Charles Bosanko. During all those busy years, Grandmother had a maid, Annie Brown, who did the housework. I dimly remember her; she married when I was about six and went to live in a neighboring town."



ALICE BERRYMAN (BOSANKO) WEBB

THE BOSANKO FAMILY

JOHN BOSANKO (1) , my great-grandfather, was born in St. Keverne's Parish, Cornwall, in 1766 and lived to the age of ninety, dying in 1856. I know little of him, except that he was the local estate-agent for Lord ? who had properties in the district. His wife was a Mary ? who was born in 1769 and died in 1845. They are both buried in St. Keverne's churchyard and had at least two children.

JAMES BOSANKO (2) my grandfather, was killed by a kick of his horse 10 April 1855 and is buried in Aurora, Canada. I know little of him beyond the fact that he was a small contractor and builder and seems to have prospered to a modest degree. Of his children I have fairly full records. They were:

1. JOHN BOSANKO (3) who was born in Cornwall 4 January 1840 and was brought to this country as a baby. He married Ann McEwan in Aurora 29 October 1862. She died shortly after the birth of a second child, who also died, and is buried in Aurora. His first child, Alice Berryman, was brought up by Grandmother. When I was in college, Uncle John came to visit us in Hartford and to see his daughter for the first time since she was a baby. He was a dry little old man for whom I took rather a liking during the few days he spent with us. He went back to Aurora to spend his last years and died there.

ALICE BERRYMAN BOSANKO (4), his surviving child, has filled the place of a father in my life. From what she has said, I gather that Grandmother Bosanko must have been very much like her. She was born in Aurora, Christmas Day 1865. There she spent a very happy girlhood till Grandmother's death when she was about fifteen. At this time, Uncle Charles was a prosperous dentist in Barrie and took her into his home and finished her education. As a young woman, she was engaged to a very wealthy man who came down with tuberculosis. Knowing that he could not live, she refused to marry him but nursed him till his death. My father being at this time in Colorado, she joined him there as she was very fond of him. When he died, she came East with my Mother and graduated as a nurse from the Hartford Hospital. For a number of years she followed her profession, leaving it to marry my Mother's first cousin, Francis Parsons Webb 31 January 1914. Till my Mother's death, she, Frank and Alice lived together in Hartford.

2. CHARLES HENRY BOSANKO (3), the second son of James and Alice, was born in Toronto, 1 December 1842 and died in Barrie, 10 July 1925. When the family moved to Aurora, Uncle Charles went to the neighboring town of Barrie to attend high-school. After his graduation, he worked as an office-boy for a local doctor and continued his studies at night. He next worked his way through the University of Toronto and received the degree of Licentiate of Dental Surgery. He returned to Barrie to practise and some ten years later went ? to the University of Pennsylvania for his doctor's degree. He married Isabelle Laird of Barrie December 27, 1871. Uncle Charles was devoted to his family and helped most of his younger brothers get their educations. He was very fond of my father whom he considered as his own son. After many years of prosperity he grew old and sick and Cousin Alice returned to Barrie to do what she could for him and for Aunt Belle. Shortly after her arrival, they both died, Aunt Belle on May 28. I saw but little of either of them, though I remember a visit Aunt Belle made us in Hartford when I was a boy and a month we spent in Barrie when I was in college. Aunt Belle was a silent, bony woman whom Cousin Alice, who knew her best, has characterized as "cold and selfish." Uncle Charles, with whom I always kept in touch by letter, was of a very different temperament. He was impulsive, warm-hearted and loyal and I cherish his memory. The following is a letter which he wrote me at the time of my marriage. I add it, not because the sentiment is original, but because Uncle Charles lived his ideal through long years of good and bad fortune with a constancy few can equal.

Barrie, Aug. 18, 1921.

Dear Paul & Blanche,

This is not an easy letter for me to write, not having had much practise on the subject. However, I will commence by saying that marriage is the most important and responsible contract that you and Blanche will ever be called upon to make in this life. It is a very serious problem to solve, there is no joke about it to well-balanced, thinking people, which I hope you both fully realize. Now Paul, to make it a success, I implore you as naturally the stronger of the two, to be sure the weight of the burden of life is carried by you, especially on the hills and over the rough places on the road. Do not expect the Lord to give you any particular protection, but by your unceasing and never-wavering love and constancy in your personal kindness Blanche will lean upon you as an unfailing husband and lover. I do not mean for a month, a year, ten years, but for life.

After a married life of fifty years I have had some experience and know something of what I am trying to say to you. Aunt Belle joins me in congratulations and all good wishes for you future happiness.

Your affectionate uncle,
Bosanko.

The Bosanko family is of two distinct physical types; one, short, thick-set, with sandy or red hair, the typical Cornish build. Grandmother, Uncle Charles, Cousin Alice and most of the family were of this type. The other, found in Alfred, Richard, my Father and myself, is tall, fair and slender. When I was in college I had a series of anthropological measurements taken by a scientist from the Smithsonian Institute who was working on a research problem in Yale. He told me that I was an excellent example of the Teutonic type.

3. JAMES BOSANKO (3) was born in Aurora June 24, 1845. Cousin Alice has told me that he was the only one of the boys who was not fine, kindly and devoted to Grandmother. She describes him as a mean man and a "skinflint" who ran away from home as soon as he was able to do so. He settled in Atchison, Kansas and married Cevilla Lieb (28 April 1872). He became a butcher and packer and had several daughters and one son RICHARD JAMES (4) who is married and lives in Denver. While I was living in Greeley, Colorado, this Richard looked me up and we spent an evening together. He seemed to be a pleasant fellow, of no particular education, who had followed his father's trade. He was of the typical Cornish build and told me that he had several children. He also said that he had met a number of Bosankos in the West who, though Cornish, had no connection that could be discovered with our family.

4. MARY ELEANOR (3) was born 27 September 1846 and died in infancy 27 October 1847.

5. MARY ELLEN (3) who also died in infancy (11 April 1848 - 2 October 1849.)

6. SAMUEL (3) who died at birth. (13 - 18 September 1850.)

7. ALFRED (3) was born 5 May 1852. He was known as Uncle Fred and was of my Father's type. Uncle Charles helped him to become a dentist and he settled in Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he died, leaving two children IRENE MAY(4) and ARTHUR GEORGE (4). Cousin Alice has told me that he was a very brilliant, clever man with a marked gift for drawing, a gift which he used in illustrating most of his letters home.

8. RICHARD GEORGE (3) was born 13 March 1854. He was Alice. He died 7 August 1926.

R. G. Bosanko, who has lived in Atchison fifty years, had his sixty-seventh birthday yesterday, and in the afternoon between forty and fifty of his friends called at his home on Sixth and Kearney streets, to offer congratulations. Mrs. Bosanko served punch to the callers, many of whom remained to visit. The visitors talked over old times; most of them had known Mr. Bosanko all during the years he has lived here. Mr. Bosanko has been engaged in business in Atchison for forty years, and during that time has never taken a vacation. A death in the family, or possibly a slight illness of his own, has detained him from his place of business for several days from time to time, but with those exceptions he has always been on the job. He actually loves work, and his idea of punishment is to be deprived of working. R. G. Bosanko was born in Toronto, Canada, where one of his brothers, a doctor, now lives. He has a son, Harry Bosanko, of Oklahoma City, and his wife's daughters, Mrs. Clarence Blanke, of Atchison, and Mrs. Searles Bolman, of Concordia, are as dear to him as though they were his own. Among those to wish Mr. Bosanko many happy returns of the day were many who, during the forty years he has been in business in Atchison, have traded exclusively with him, and it must have been gratifying to Mr. Bosanko to hear the expressions of esteem, in regard to him, exchanged by his customers and friends of forty years standing.

also helped by Uncle Charles with his education. He settled in Atchison, Kansas, where he became a successful butcher and packer. He had one son, HARRY (4) who lived in Oklahoma City. We have never had any contact with this branch of the family. The following clipping concerning him was cut from an Atchison paper and sent by him to Uncle Charles who in turn sent it to Cousin Alice. He died 7 August 1926.

My dear Paul

I might as well say at first that I feel ashamed of myself for not writing to you long ago. and think also the best thing for you to do is to come over and give me a good strong lecture, it might wake me up I was pleased to receive a copy of your paper "The Weekly Chat" and you just served me right when you did not mail the subsequent numbers when I did not send the subscription price, however I am aware that it a custom followed by publishers not to continue mailing copies to people who don't forward the cash, so as I wish to remain on your list enclosed you will find an order for one dollar $1.00 when my subscription expires let me know & I will remit.

Well Paul I am gratified to know that you have recovered from your very serious illness of some time ago and hope you will grow up a big strong man and be a source of comfort to your Mother.

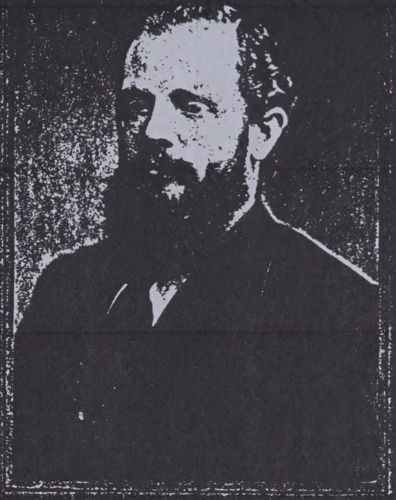
CHARLES HENRY BOSANKO



Philadelphia 1874

HIS HOME IN BARRIE ONTARIO

DR. C. H. BOSANKO

Dr. C. H. Bosanko, one of the oldest professional men of Barrie, passed away on Friday, July 10, at his late residence, Mulcaster St. He had been in feeble health for some time and a fall down the stairs of his home about two weeks ago, together with the death of his wife some weeks ago, no doubt hastened the end. Dr. Bosanko was born in Toronto on December 1st, 1842, but spent most of his boyhood days at Aurora, where he received his early education. In July, 1869, he graduated from the Royal Dental College, Toronto, and in September of the same year he came to Barrie and entered into partnrship with the late Dr. J. A. McCausland. In 1873 he took a post graduate course in Philadelphia Royal Dental College and received his D.D.S. in February 1874. Since that time he had been practicing in Barrie till his retirement about five years ago. In 1871 he married Isabella Laird, daughter of the late John Laird, Esq., Barrie, who predeceased him by a month. One brother survives, Richard G. Bosanko, of Atchison, Kan., U.S.A., also a niece, Mrs. Frances Webb, of Hartford, U.S.A.

The late Dr. Bosanko was among the oldest Free Masons in Barrie. In September, 1865, he joined Rising Sun Lodge, No. 129, Aurora, and in 1873 he was made a Royal Arch Mason in Signet Chapter, No. 34, Orillia. He was a charter member of Kerr Lodge, No. 230, and had the honor of being a Past Master.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, under Masonic auspices. Interment took place at the Union cemetery.

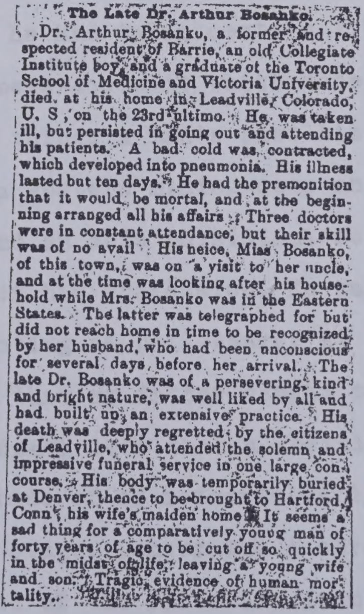
9. SAMUEL ARTHUR BOSANKO (3) my father, was born 25 November 1855. On his father's death, he went to Uncle Charles who helped him to get his education. He attended the University of Toronto were he took the degrees of B.M., C.M. and M.D. in 1881. After graduation, he practised for a short time in a small town in Kansas. The story goes that the local nabob, a wealthy Southerner, took a great fancy to him, as did the gentleman's daughter. My father did not reciprocate and, Grandmother falling ill, he sold his practise and returned to Canada. He remained at home till his mother's death and then signed a contract with a mining company as surgeon in the booming mining town of Leadville in Colorado. When he arrived there he found that the company had vanished into thin air and that the camp was in the midst of an epedemic of small-pox from the contagion of which most of the doctors had fled. A pest-camp was soon established and he, together with a French physician named D'Avignon, threw themselves into the work of saving as many victims as possible. When the epedemic was over, he and D'Avignon were the heroes of the camp and patients came to both of them in almost too great numbers.

Some little time after this, my grandfather Newton came West with the idea of establishing iron-works in Colorado. Caught with the mining-fever, he left his

When I was two years old, Cousin Alice left her home in Barrie to join our family in Leadville. In the mean time, my father's practise and reputation as a surgeon had outgrown the confines of Leadville and he was contemplating a move to Hartford when, over-worked and tired out, he came down with a severe case of pneumonia and died after a short illness on November 23, 1895, two days before his fortieth birthday. He is buried in the Parsons lot in the Cedar Hill Cemetery in Hartford. The following clipping is from a Barrie paper of the time.



The Late Dr. Arthur Bosanko.

Dr. Arthur Bosanko, a former and respected resident of Barrie, an old Collegiate Institute boy, and a graduate of the Toronto School of Medicine and Victoria University, died at his home in Leadville, Colorado, U. S., on the 23rd ultimo. He was taken ill, but persisted in going out and attending his patients. A bad cold was contracted, which developed into pneumonia. His illness lasted but ten days. He had the premonition that it would be mortal, and at the beginning arranged all his affairs. Three doctors were in constant attendance, but their skill was of no avail. His neice, Miss Bosanko, of this town, was on a visit to her uncle, and at the time was looking after his household while Mrs. Bosanko was in the Eastern States. The latter was telegraphed for but did not reach home in time to be recognized by her husband, who had been unconscious for several days before her arrival. The late Dr. Bosanko was of a persevering, kind and bright nature, was well liked by all and had built up an extensive practice. His death was deeply regretted by the citizens of Leadville, who attended the solemn and impressive funeral service in one large concourse. His body was temporarily buried at Denver, thence to be brought to Hartford, Conn., his wife's maiden home. It seems a sad thing for a comparatively young man of forty years of age to be cut off so quickly in the midst of life, leaving a young wife and son. Tragic evidence of human mortality.

As I was but four years old when he died, my memories of him amount to but little beyond one or two disconnected pictures. Cousin Alice has spoken of him a great deal and his memory has been very dear to me. He was a man of rather outstanding intellect, possessing a very keen sense of honor and duty and was a tireless worker. In physical type and emotional reactions I have conformed fairly closely to his model.

During his life in Leadville his closest friend and associate was the Doctor D'Avignon with whom he first came to the camp. This D'Avignon was a Frenchman, a vicompte, who had been an army-surgeon. Infatuated with a charming lady and unable to meet her financial requirements, he had taken certain liberties with the regimental mess-accounts which made a trip to America the obvious thing. A man's past history was of little account in a Western mining-camp and Dr. D'Avignon, a gentleman and an able physician, soon stood in the front rank of his profession. He was my god-father. It was while acting as pall-bearer at the funeral of his best friend that my father caught the cold that brought on his own death less than a fortnight later.

The Colorado of my mother's early days was still in its pioneer stage. Denver was a straggling and unlovely town, the end of the railroad, from which point wagon-trains left for the camps in the mountains. Leadville itself was one of the boom camps of the Old West, a wide-open, roaring settlement of some twenty-thousand men gathered from the four corners of the Earth to make a quick fortune. It must have presented a strange picture to the gently-reared Eastern women. Mother was full of stories of her early married life in Leadville, of the little wooden cottage heated by stoves and none too well built to withstand a mountain winter, of water sold at a dollar a barrel, of the streets always bordered by rushing streams of muddy sluice-water from the mines, of the quick fortunes and of the equally quick failures. She used to tell of a fire which broke out near the house in which she was living and which destroyed the town's best known brothel. As many of the "ladies" were patients of my father. Mother felt it her duty to offer several of them temporary shelter. She said that their conduct, during their brief visit, was most exemplary and that thir public gratitude was quite embarrassing. To compensate for the rough life of the camp, there was a very active society among the numerous Eastern and European gentlefolk. Dinner-parties were frequent and formal, the guests usually arriving and leaving in a body with the ladies in the middle and the gentlemen on the outside, their revolvers ready in their coat pockets. The annual Leadville Assembly was a ball of great magnificence, many of the women appearing in Paris gowns and enjoying the supper served by Sherry's of New York. As the camp declined, the fortunate moved East or to rapidly growing Denver where they settled down in great sanctity and became "prominent families," their frequently lurid Leadville days put behind them.

RICHARD BOSANKO (2). My grandfather James Bosanko evidently left at least one brother in Cornwall when he came out to Canada. I have never been able to learn anything of this brother, Richard, nor of his family, beyond one letter which he wrote to my grandmother and which was found among her papers. He would seem to have been a tenant-farmer, married and with two sons, John and Richard junior (3). As there are no Bosankos left in St. Keverne, I judge that the boys went out to the colonies when they grew up.

You will doubtless know that he suffered from heart disease and that was the cause of his sudden death. I am like yourself, left with one little boy, Harry, he was six years old this month.

On Friday, May 31, the annual Class Day Exercises took place at two o'clock in the Chapel. The boys marched in in the same order that they used Sunday at the Vesper Service. The students and guests sang the hymn "America," accompanied by Mr. Jones at the organ, while the Seniors entered in single file.

Last Sunday the Blake chapel

Our Late Friend

When Mr. Alder took the platform in chapel Monday, May 13, very few boys realized how serious the import of his speech was to be, for he announced that Mr. Bosanko had died the day before, Sunday morning. The news was stunning. It was hard to believe at first, for only Saturday Mr. Bosanko had driven to the University to watch his son and some of his other French students act in a University Theater presentation of a French play called "Topaze." Then the next morning he died. His passing was a painful blow to a great many, both inside and outside the school, for his genial personality had gained him a multitude of friends.

Mr. Bosanko led a life of many achievements. He graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy in June of 1910 and entered Yale the succeeding fall. He received his B.A. and his L.L.B. from the latter, and in 1922 was granted a Master's degree from Colorado State Teacher's College. He then took courses toward a Doctor's degree while an instructor of French and Spanish at the University of Minnesota in 1922-25. During World War I he was an officer for twelve months in the British Army in France. Upon his return to the U. S. he became an assistant in the Foreign Securities Dept. of the Equitable Trust Co., of New York. He was a member of the Connecticut Bar Association and the Lamda Alpha Psi, the honorary Linguistic Fraternity of the Universities.

In the fall of 1925 Mr. Bosanko became a member of the Blake faculty, remaining in these hallowed halls for twenty-one years, up to the time of his death. While here he became a past master of Lake Harriet Lodge, A.F. and A.M., a member of York and Spanish Rites, senior warden of the Lodge of Education, and a member of St. John's Episcopal Church. This may seem like a great number of accomplishments for only one man, but Mr. Bosanko was industrious and enjoyed being busy.

While at Blake he was an enthusiastic backer of all the Swimming Teams which the school produced, and was Faculty Advisor for swimming the majority of his years here. As a teacher of French and Spanish, Mr. Bosanko was rarely equaled, less often surpassed. His sharp wit in and out of class won him the respect of every boy at Blake and provided his students with many a laugh at an otherwise serious moment. He had been ill for some time before he died and had undergone an operation for stomach ulcers two summers ago. This year indigestion had bothered him a great deal, and he was constantly distressed with throat trouble. When finally he passed away, the school mourned deeply. It was a doubly unfortunate happening since he had planned to retire next year and take a prolonged rest.

The TORCH Board, together with the school—students and masters alike—takes this opportunity to extend its sympathies to Mrs. Bosanko and her son and daughter, Michael and Anna.

END COMES TO DR. BOSANKO

Death Closes the Career of an Honored Member of the Medical Profession

A NOBLE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

Stricken With Pneumonia Over a Week Ago He Passes Away Saturday Morning — Sketch of the Career of One of Leadville's Leading Physicians.

Dr. S. Arthur Bosanko, the well-known physician and surgeon, died at his residence at No. 120 West Seventh Street at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

The sickness which culminated in his demise was contracted last Monday, a week ago. He was taken ill and was confined to his room, but persisted in seeing his patients in spite of his indisposition. The following Wednesday the doctor contracted a bad cold that settled on his lungs and soon manifested symptoms of pneumonia.

He was at once prostrated and became disconsolate, having a premonition of the final outcome. So strongly had this conviction taken hold of him that he made his will and gave his friend Dr. E.T. Boyd, explicit directions as to the details of his burial.

Dr. McDonald and Dr. Law were almost constant at his bedside and the best nurses of St. Vincent's hospital were vigilant in their attention upon the sick physician.

Dr. Fiske, a prominent Denver physician, had been telegraphed for and arrived on Friday of last week, when Dr. Bosanko gained some encouragement and expressed some hopes of recovery.

His mind became lucid and his temperature showed signs of improvement. But a relapse soon set in and he again became delirious and his disease seemed to have made such an advance that it could not be arrested by the best medical skill. During this entire week he has lingered, displaying much stronger vitality than his friends believed him to be possessed of. Each night it was believed that the critical hour had arrived and each morning there seemed to be a ray of hope, until Saturday when the alert eye of the physicians clearly discerned that the vital forces were about to give way and dissolution to set in. He died at the hour named, peaceably, surrounded by his wife, little boy, and attending physicians.

Dr. Bosanko, (?) old in the practice of medicine and enjoying a larger clientele than any physician in the city, was in years a young man, but 39 years of age. He was born at Barrie, Canada, and graduated form Edward McGill College, the same school of medicine which the late Dr. D'Avignon attended. After practicing at his profession at Independence in this state he came to Leadville and became the assistant of Dr. Law who was then the city physician. It was at that time that the smallpox broke out and the contagion was more virulent and fatal than it has ever been since. Dr. Bosanko was but a youth at the time and displayed such courage and skill that he at once commanded the confidence of the community and gained a magnificent gratitude which he retained to the time of his death. For many years he has been the chief surgeon of St. Vincent's Hospital. He was a young man of indomitable energy and was never known to refuse to answer a call to the bedside of the suffering, no difference how fatigued he might be from overwork or how inclement the weather. It was this overwork that undermined his constitution and caused his early death.

During the five years that he was associated with Dr. John Law, he made himself loved and respected by a host of people with whom he was brought in daily contact.

Dr. Bosanko was always ready to invest his earnings in mining enterprises and he has been one of the active investors in this field. He was heavily interested in opening up a large property at Robinson and contributed to the development of many of the mines in the Carbonite Camp.

Dr. Bosanko, by his social nature and hearty spirits, was greatly beloved by a large circle of friends and respected by the entire community. His home was the center of many pleasant social gatherings and the community will greatly miss the absent one. He leaves a wife, a pretty little son of five summers and the entire community to mourn a loyal husband, devoted father and a skillful physician and surgeon. The funeral will take place on Monday, but at the time of this writing the hour cannot be announced.

In addition to the armorial engraving, one is marked "T.S.W. to E.S.P." and the other "T.S.W. to E.S.W." I can only explain the"E.S.W." as an error.P.B.) a portrait of Elizabeth's mother, tapestry, brocade, mirrors, a card-table etc. (This table was left by my mother to Francis Parsons. Grandmother Newton is a very clear memory of my childhood and I loved her deeply. Though in failing health, she was a woman of unusual character. Her life had been a very unhappy one, due to her husband's fondness for drink and to his business failure, which all but wiped out his large fortune. Her misfortunes had served to mellow rather than sour her and she was loved and respected by everyone with whom she came in contact. P. B.)

HARRIET WORTHINGTON NEWTON (8) was born November 9, 1866 in St. Albans, Vermont. She lived there till her father's failure sent the family to Colorado where she met her husband Doctor Samuel Arthur Bosanko. She returned to St. Albans and was married there in 1889, returning to Leadville, Colorado, then a boom mining-camp. On her husband's death in 1895, she returned to live with her mother in Hartford.

(On the evening of February 23, 1933 my mother was suddenly taken ill and the next morning she died of acute cardial thrombosis. Her death came as a great shock to Frank and Alice Webb, with whom she had lived so long, and to me who was called from Minneapolis for her funeral. She was buried in our lot in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Hartford next to my father and a single head-stone marks their graves.

The facts of her life are relatively easy to record, but a pen much more gifted than mine would be needed to do justice to her vivid personality and brilliant mind. However, no family record would be complete without some attempt to show her to those who did not know her, so I shall do my best.

Her birth and family are a mystery. Elizabeth Scott Parsons (Newton), discovering that she could never hope for children of her own, adopted my mother in her infancy. Alice Berryman Bosanko (Webb) who was her life-long friend, has written me, "All I know is what your mother told me. Grandmother Newton never mentioned the subject to anyone, except to your father on the occasion of his engagement to your mother and she bound him to secrecy, saying that your mother never knew, which fact she firmly believed as long as she lived. Grandmother Newton wished to adopt a baby girl and a young and very attractive woman brought this child to a Home for Children either in New York or Brooklyn, I am not positive which. I do know, however, that the young woman said she came from Brooklyn. She was very young and the inference was that she was a widow. At any rate, they took it for granted and your grandmother was given the baby with the absolute understanding that she would never again hear from or see the mother, which she never did. When your mother grew up, she learned from some busybodies in St. Albans that she had been adopted and she appealed to Cousin Sarah Fowler to help her in ferreting out some clew to her parentage. This attempt was not successful, beyond the fact that the young woman came from Brooklyn, which she already knew."

Her childhood in St. Albans was a very happy one, but with Grandfather Newton's failure, I imagine that Mother's life was not pleasant, though she seldom spoke of this period. The family lived in Hartford and in Brooklyn while Grandfather tried to get on his feet again and, when she was old enough, Mother was sent to Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Connecticut, to finish her education. Her married life in Colorado was brief - only six years - and the greater part of her time was spent quietly in Hartford taking care of Grandmother Newton, who was in failing health, and in seeing to my up-bringing.

Mother was a great reader and a brilliant conversationalist, with one of the keenest and best informed minds it has ever been my good fortune to meet. Many times, during my school and college years, I would come home, full of some new idea, only to find that Mother was already much better informed on it than I was myself. I shall always remember the long evenings that I have spent in front of the fire with her, talking religion, philosophy, history and speculating on Life and its meaning. I feel that I learned much more from her than I ever did from my purely academic work. Though of high moral standards, she was no puritan and thoroughly enjoyed a good drink, a good story and a smoke. Many is the night-cap I have had with her at the end of one of our talks, long after the rest of the family had gone to bed.

Being a woman of decided opinions and strong character, it was inevitable that we should come into conflict as I grew older, but underneath, we were very close to each other. From the time when I left home till her death, Mother made it a rule to send me a weekly letter, which was an endless pleasure to us. Many of them I have kept and feel that they will better show what manner of woman she was than will any words of my own. I do not wish to draw her as without faults, for she had her share. Yet, considering the disappointments of her girlhood and married life, I think that she kept a very sane view of life and lived through strains which might well have wrecked a character less strong than hers.
